

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY - POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP (PGRS) 2021 HONOURS, MASTER'S & DOCTORAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Office of Research Development is inviting all eligible honours, master's and doctoral students to apply for the PGRS (new) or from current PGRS holders (renewals).

The closing date for the 2021 PGRS is → 30 NOVEMBER 2020

Kindly note the following academic eligibility criteria:

Honours	Student must have received 60% for their Undergraduate Degree
Master's	Student must have received 60% for their Honours Degree
Doctoral	Student must have received 65% for their Master's Degree

PLEASE NOTE

- 1) Applying for the PGRS, does not guarantee that you will be awarded PGRS funding. The number of students that can be funded will depend on the available budget.
- 2) Students who applied for the 2021 NRF Postgraduate Scholarship and also intend to submit an application for the current PGRS call, should be aware of the following:
 - In the event that you receive Full Cost of Study (FCS) funding from the NRF, the PGRS funding will not be granted. This principle will apply to all external scholarships that provide funding at full cost of study.
 - In the event that you receive Partial Cost of Study (PCS) funding from the NRF, PGRS funding may be awarded up to the Nelson Mandela University maximum value for Master's and Doctoral studies.
- 3) Employees and dependents of employees of the University who receive study-related financial incentives (e.g. waiving of class fees) are not eligible for the PGRS.
- 4) Students registering for a second Honours, Master's or Doctoral degree are not eligible to apply for the PGRS.
